

Deratiseur's Unused Kits Pack v18.1

Introduction:

This mod was initially a pack of kits whose primary purpose was to provide interesting kits to classes rarely played "pure" (without multi-classing), in order to change this trend. Hence the term "Unused".

One thing leading to another and new kits have been added while some, such as Warlord or Sorcerer, can no longer keep this mindset. DUKP remains no less a compilation of worked kits, where I put all my skills in order to make it worth your fulfilment. Thus: good game :)

Included in this pack:

- A fighter (half-orc) kit: the Bearer of Hate.
- A ranger kit: the Hunter of Vermin.
- A cleric kit: the Preacher of Fire.
- A cleric kit: the Garagos crusader.
- A thief kit: the Shadow Walker.
- A thief (gnome) kit : the Shadowmage
- A mage (replacing the conjurer) kit: the Savant Artilleryman.
- A fighter dual classed to a mage kit: the Warlord.
- A multi-class thief/necromancer kit: The Anatomist. (Selection on thief class)
- A multi-class fighter/mage (elf) kit: The Bladesinger. (Selection on fighter class)
- A multi-class cleric/wild mage (human) kit: The Theurgical Explorer. (Selection on cleric class)

Each kit is explained in detailed in a PDF accordingly named.

Requirements (for BG2 / BGT):

- To fully use these kits you must have installed Throne of Bhaal expansion.
- It is highly recommended to patch your installation with the latest official patch: version 26498 for TOB.

Compatibility:

- Spell revision should preferably be installed before Warlord:

Spell revision turns some spell scrolls universal, and thus usable by Warlord. This goes in contradiction to his major drawback and allows cheating. To avoid this, simply install Warlord after Spell Revision. The kit includes a special compatibility patch.

DUKP kit affected by this warning:

- Warlord

To the team of La couronne de cuivre, that provided me a salon.

To Constant Gaw and hldiskialf for having completed the Geomantic sorcerer kit, so cool that it pushed me to "make things better" to try to do that good as well (and I have failed).

To Nightfarer for translating DUKP into English.

To Colin McComb for having written "The complete book of elfe" from here the Bladesinger comes.

To William W. Connors for having completed "Wizards and Rogues of The Realms" from which is derived the Shadow Walker.

To Monte Cook for everything he has written and the hours of fun I experienced reading.

To Isaya who gave me lot of help and information.

To Zranoff that helped me a lot for the complex installation coding.

To CamDawg for providing me an effective way to ensure compatibility with BGEE v1.2 and for the several WeiDU codes he let me have on G3 forum.

To Erephine for having ported multiple animations of monsters of NWN into BG2 format.

To Freddy_Gwendo for having ported multiple animations of monsters of Diablo II into BG2 format.

To Salomon Kane for having ported several spell animations of TOEE into BG2 format.

To Kwiat_W that let me use some spell animations from his "Psionics Unleashed" mod.

To Akadis, Armand, Valombre, Varscona, Pandafou, Lycein, Boomer76 and Gusinda for bug reports.

To Jack-OF-Blades for the good idea that inspired me for the Master of the Swarm.

And one is missing, who came one day on the cdc forum and gave me 350 icons in B format. I've forget his name and i really thank it.
